Interpretation of Site	Heritage Inventory Interpretation: Site comprises the remains of two orchards which were planted in the 1870s. Trees mostly apple and pear. No apparent drains constructed. 1945 aerial photo suggests there was a large packing shed immediately N of eastern dam. Now completely removed and no cellar or foundation apparent. Area has been levelled. Dams most likely date to 1890s drought period and Pine windbreaks also thought to date to this period.
