History

A Naval College Jetty was located at this site around 1905 and was still there as late as 1933. Baths were added to the northern side of the pier sometime around 1919. The pier was still extant in the 1950s but had either been demolished or incorporated into land reclamation as part of the St Helens Marina.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
