Heritage Inventory History of Site:

ROKEWOOD UNITED Co,

23.12.1895: bricklayers preparing bed for boilers commence housing in Monday.

06.01.1896: all machinery nearly erected; all material on ground for the building of a blacksmith shop.

20.01.1896: their splendid machinery almost complete and will start sinking on Monday; it is as complete a plant as one would find in the colony.

01.02.1896: report of starting of the machinery; part of the revival in mining in the district; plant includes 15 inch cylinder by 3 foot stroke engine with link motion, a boiler 20 foot by 5 foot; the engine is well housed and there is a substantial blacksmith shop at the mine.

01.01.1897: ground not paying.
