Physical Description 1

In 1929 the architects Clegg, Morrow and Cameron were commissioned to execute designs for additions and alterations to this building.

The main facade differs slightly from that proposed as two similar gable ended sections were intended. The openings however were omitted from the southern section. The resulting red brick building is simple and unpretentious in appearance.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
