Physical Description 1

A local sandstone random rubble stone war memorial and terraced gardens with central stone axial approach stairs to the memorial. The memorial features plaques commemorating World War I 1914-18; World War II 1939-45; and the conflicts in Malaya, Korea and Vietnam. Originally, the memorial was sited to terminate the vista looking from the bridge over the Yarra River directly, however, this connection was lost when a new bridge was constructed.

The RSL clubrooms located at the rear of the site is a simple late-twentieth century hall.

Veterans Description for Public

The Warrandyte War Memorial, on Yarra Street, comprises of a rubble stone cairn with terraced gardens and a central stone stair that approaches the memorial. The cairn was built in 1922 by a local stonemason Kevin Sloane to commemorate the First World War. Plaques were then added for the Second World War, Malaya, Korea and Vietnam. Originally the memorial was positioned at the end of the vista looking from the bridge over the Yarra River directly however this connection was lost when a new bridge was constructed. Trees close to the monument feature plaques dedicated to seven fallen district servicemen and located at the rear of the site are the RSL clubrooms.
