Physical Description 1

A pair of ornate wrought iron gates, painted black. The gates are mounted as decorative items, opposite the Museum. Brass plaques to the centre of each gate read 'Royal Corps Australian Army Ordnance' and there is another brass plaque to one gate which reads 'Simpson Gates 18 May 1955'.

Veterans Description for Public

The Simpson Memorial Gates, on Anderson Road, were the original gates at the entrance to South Bandiana. They are now mounted opposite the Museum and dedicated to Brigadier Simpson. The gates resemble a pair of ornate wrought iron gates, painted black. Brass plaques to the centre of each gate read, 'Royal Corps Australian Army Ordnance' and 'Simpson Gates 18 May 1955'.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
