Veterans Description for Public

The Graytown Prisoner of War Camp, on Heathcote-Nagambie Road, dates from the Second World War. Graytown was typical of other prisoner of war camps in Victoria which consisted of 'P1' type accommodation blocks. Little remains other than the concrete foundations of ablutions and kitchen blocks.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
