
South Melbourne Remount Depot and Drill Hall

Location

Sturt Street, South Melbourne, MELBOURNE CITY

Municipality

MELBOURNE CITY

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Construction dates 1930,

Architect/Designer Hallandal, George H.,

Hermes Number 126091

Property Number

Physical Description 1

Late 1930s Interwar drill hall.

Only a timber married quarters and perhaps some stabling remain. Bluestone pitched paving is probably also from this period.

Historical Australian Themes

Providing administrative structures and authorities - defence

Physical Conditions

Drill hall intact. Remnants: some outbuildings including timber married quarters from that era.

Usage/Former Usage

3 Psych Unit, Remnants of earlier buildings

Veterans Description for Public

The South Melbourne Remount Depot and Drill hall on Sturt Street was the site of timber orderly room and depot in the colonial period. The site is now occupied by brick drill hall from interwar period 1935 - 1939. The mounting depot was constructed in Sturt Street at the same time as the Maribyrnong facility. Only a timber married quarters and some stabling remain.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>