Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Architecturally: a generally original and skillfully designed example of an important architectural style, which found its expression in a narrow field of architecture, notably post offices and banks (State Savings Banks) also one of a civic group in Hawthorn's civic centre: of high regional importance.

Historically: one of two post office buildings within this civic group, the former office having been in the western wing of the municipal offices and a prominent public building: of local importance.
