Veterans Description for Public

The Carrum Downs Memorial Hall, on Frankston-Dandenong Road, is dedicated to the memory of men from the Casterton district who died in the Boer War. The hall comprises of a weatherboarded and cement sheet clad building with joint cover strapping, symmetrically arranged multi-pane glazing and a gabled porch. It is typical of public halls of its era but it is one of the few intact public buildings in the city from the 1920s-30s.
