Veterans Description for Public

The Heatherton First World War Memorial consists of a matching pair of granite, truncated columns with a wreath around the top on a tall plinth. These columns were erected on behalf of the residents of the Shire of Moorabbin and is one of seven war memorials in the Heatherton Memorial Reserve. They were once located outside the RSL Hall on the Nepean Highway Cheltenham but were relocated to the Reserve due to road widening works near the hall. The small monument between the two columns is constructed from bluestone and acknowledges the support of the RSL and the Australian Government in relocating the monuments in April 2000.
