Veterans Description for Public

The Parkdale WWII War memorial takes the form of a tall and slender obelisk in plain concrete with a large three-pronged base and a simple brass wreath on the front. The plaque reads, 'This memorial was unveiled by his excellency Major- General Sir Rohan Delcombe, Governor of Victoria, 10th November, 1968.' The plaque to the right reads 'The City of Mordialloc will always remember its fallen'. The obelisk is linked to the First World War Monument by a simple concrete apron, which describes a simple contemplative space between the memorials

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
