STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

'Barwon Grange' erected in 1856 for merchant for merchant J.P. O'Brien, is a notable early Victorian villa designed in the appropriate and characteristic picturesque gothic mode of the 1850's. The brick house is important for its decorative roofline with fretted gable barge-boards , wooden finials and attic dormers. Elegant fenestration and joinery, and a most unusual timber verandah which incorporates a decorative balustrade above the roofline over an ornamental valence and couples posts, establish the original and distinguished nature of this design. The architect for this villa is unknown. Davidson and Henderson designed the kitchen out-buildings in 1871 and Joseph Watts designed the entrance gates in 1885 for James Chadwick.
