

JOHNSTON STREET MULLOCK HEAP

Location

BANDYS ROAD SMYTHESDALE, GOLDEN PLAINS SHIRE

Municipality

GOLDEN PLAINS SHIRE

Level of significance

Heritage Inventory Site

Heritage Inventory (HI) Number

H7622-0450

Heritage Listing

Victorian Heritage Inventory

Archaeological Significance	This site has archaeological significance with potential for in-situ deposits relating to the operation of the gold mine, including timber and brick foundations, material culture demonstrating the conditions of miners during this period
Historical Significance	The site is of local historic significance as an example of deep lead gold mining in Smythesdale during the mid to late C19th.
Interpretation of Site	The large mullock heap represents excavated material from deep lead mine shaft. The site may be associated with surrounding commercial mining companies
Hermes Number	162628
Property Number

History

This site is likely to be associated with one of numerous commercial gold mine companies operating in Smythesdale during the mid to late nineteenth century.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>