

Stained Glass Window at Burwood Uniting [formerly Presbyterian] Church

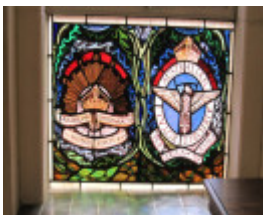

Burwood Uniting Church [formerly Methodist], war memorial, David Taylor Kellock 1950

Burwood Uniting Church [formerly Methodist], war memorial inscription, David Taylor Kellock 1950

Burwood Uniting Church [formerly Methodist], war memorial detail of RAN badge, David Taylor Kellock 1950

Burwood Uniting Church [formerly Methodist], war memorial detail of Army and Air Force badges, David Taylor Kellock 1950

Location

Warrigal Road, Burwood, MONASH CITY

Municipality

MONASH CITY

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

---

Heritage Study/Consultant	Vic War Heritage Inventory - Stained Glass Memorial Windows Study, Bronwyn Hughes, 2013;
Architect/Designer	Kellock, David Taylor,
Hermes Number	196668
Property Number

---

Memorial Window References & Acknowledgements

AWM Roll of Honour: NAA: B884,VX130975; NAA: B883, VX5474; Commonwealth War Graves Commission; Argus, 11 November 1950, p.6; Burwood Presbyterian Church pamphlet issued for the opening and dedication of the building on 15 February 1964; pamphlet prepared for opening of extensions Burwood Uniting Church. 31 July 1988.

Memorial Window Subject

Crown of Life

Memorial Window Text

Faithful Unto Death

Memorial Window Inscription

To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Eric W. Newnham H. Arnold Newnham Stuart A. Hamilton L.J. Keith Olney Harold R. Taylor who gave their lives for their country 1939-1945

Memorial Window Description & History

The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, the Right Reverend WD Marshall, unveiled and dedicated the memorial window on Sunday 12 November 1950. The window included badges of the Royal Australian Navy, the Australian Commonwealth Military Forces and the Royal Australian Air Force in the two lower panels, under the figure of the kneeling knight. It was installed in the war memorial chapel, erected on the north side of the church. Three windows by David Taylor Kellock (1913-1988) were dedicated in Melbourne churches on this same day, all of them in memory of those who served at war.

Two sons of Thomas and Margaret Newnham were among five sons of the church who were killed in action during the Second World War. Eric Ward Newnham, born 16 June 1924, enlisted at Bathurst, NSW and was a Private in 2/23 Battalion, fighting at Tarakan, Borneo when he was killed on 9 May 1945. His younger brother Harvey Arnold Newnham, a temporary corporal with 2/7 Battalion, was killed on 24 May 1941 during the German invasion of the island of Crete, aged 21 years.

Warrant Officer Stewart[?] Alfred Hamilton, 178 Squadron RAF, was killed in a flying battle over Italy on 10 October 1944, aged 20.

Keith Olney trained as a civil engineer and was Shire Secretary at Barrabool when he enlisted; he was killed in a flying accident of Goulburn Island, Northern Territory on 29 May 1943.

21-year-old LAC Harold Reginald Taylor was accidentally killed on 27 January 1944 while at RAAF 7 Elementary Training School Western Junction in Tasmania.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>