Memorial Window Description & History

The right-hand light of this three-light window was '[d]edicated to the Glory of God and in memory of the three RAN AMC/LSIs of World War II, and to the men who served in them'.

The insignia and mottos of the three ships fill the upper section of the window, together with an image of a vessel in profile: HMAS Kanimbla 'Cry Havoc', HMAS Manoora 'Nux Vomica' and HMAS Westralia 'Fides et Audax', all Armed Merchant Cruisers and then Landing Ships Infantry. Second World War battle honours were listed as Indian Ocean 1940-42, Pacific 1941-45, New Guinea 1943-44, Leyte Gulf 1944, Lingayen Gulf 1945 and Borneo 1945. This is one of very few of the many chapel windows which the artist, Dacre Smyth, signed.
