Memorial Window Description & History

The war in South East Asia was rarely singled out for a specific commemorative window, despite its vital importance in the defence of Australia. The main image in this window is a multi-faceted star - the light referred to in the text. As in some other windows in this series, the backdrop to the text and image is the pincushion hakea, and the subdued colour throughout the design was only broken by the single blue flame.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
