

---

Stained Glass Window at Corio Geelong Grammar School All Saints' Anglican Chapel

Geelong Grammar Chapel
SS Luke Mark

---

Location

Biddlecombe Avenue, Corio, GREATER GEELONG CITY

Municipality

GREATER GEELONG CITY

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

---

Heritage Study/Consultant	Vic War Heritage Inventory - Stained Glass Memorial Windows Study, Bronwyn Hughes, 2013;
Architect/Designer	Montgomery, William,
Hermes Number	196770
Property Number

---

Memorial Window References & Acknowledgements

AWM Commemorative Roll; James Affleck, Geelong Grammarians of the Great War, (1999), pp.10-11; Argus, 30 March 1918, p.1; Church of England Messenger, 13 October 1921, p.490; Montgomery Letterbook 1, pp.755,757,801,815, National Gallery of Australia Research Collection; Folio 128, Montgomery ledger; Letter from Rev. F.E. Brown, 14 December 1917; William Montgomery Collection, SLV.

Memorial Window Subject

LH St. Luke RH St. Mark

Memorial Window Text

LH Medicus ille dilectus RH Adjutor in regno Dei

Memorial Window Inscription

AMDG In memory of Kenneth Charles Webb-Ware Killed in action in France 21st March 1918

Memorial Window Description & History

Stained glass artist William Montgomery designed and made all the windows for the first stage of All Saints' Chapel at Geelong Grammar School, devised in conjunction with the Headmaster, the Reverend Dr. Francis E. Brown. Subjects for the two two-light windows on the chancel north and south walls were the four Evangelists, with St Luke and St Mark opposite St Matthew and St John on the north wall. Montgomery notified Dr. Brown that he had completed the sketch for Mrs. Webb-Ware in September 1918, however the window did not proceed immediately, possibly because of the large number of commissions that Montgomery was receiving towards the end of the war. It was unveiled on 9 October 1921 by the Reverend J.W. Ashton, Vicar of All Saints', East St. Kilda and Bishop-elect of Grafton (NSW). The window cost the considerable sum of £157.10.0 which was promptly paid in April 1921, shortly after the window was installed.

Second Lieutenant Webb-Ware, elder son of the late Charles Webb-Ware, trained in England before proceeding to France where he served in the British Army with the 77 Siege Battery Royal Garrison Artillery. On 21 March 1918, a stray bullet burst at the foot of the Battery's gun pit, killing the 21 year-old Webb-Ware instantly and wounding seven other men. He was buried in the British Cemetery at Feuchy, France.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>