Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION:

The small, timber frame and weatherboard clad building is a simple and undecorated church building, with a few remaining gum trees on the west boundary and a gravel car park on the north. It has a steep pitch gable roof, clad in corrugated iron, with three metal ventilators on the ridge and plain bargeboards on the prominent gable ends.

The east west elevations each have three pointed arch motif, timber framed windows with toplights. The only decoration is the small, exposed projecting rafters under the eaves.

The south elevation has a small gable entrance porch, roofed with corrugated iron and clad in weatherboards. The porch is small exposed rafters on the east and west elevations, a large rectangular timber door on the east, and a small pointed arch motif, timber frame window with toplight on the south elevation. The south gable has two pointed arch motif, timber framed windows and a timber door.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
