DESCRIPTION

The small, single storey horizontal weatherboard Boot Room at the Barwon Heads Jetties in Barwon Heads Park is characterized by a gable roof form clad in recent galvanized corrugated iron. A fixed, early timber frames nine-light window is situated on the western gable end, and has a decorative moulded timber architrave. An early beaded timber door with timber frame is located on the north facade. Exposed timber rafters are a feature of the eaves. More recent additions include the rolled canvas awnings above the door and signage bracketed to the north facade.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
