
MUDDY CREEK PIONEER MEMORIAL CHURCH

Location

Church Road YULECART, Southern Grampians Shire

Municipality

SOUTHERN GRAMPIANS SHIRE

Level of significance

Stage 2 study complete

Heritage Listing

Southern Grampians Shire

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 10, 2003

What is significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is located on the east side of Church Road in Yulecart. The church is a simple, loosely gothic style red pressed brick church which was built in 1929. The Church was built to replace an earlier Methodist church, and has since become the Muddy Creek Uniting Church.

How is it significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is of historical and architectural significance to the Southern Grampians Shire.

Why is it significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is of historical significance as the expression of the role and position of the Methodist Church, and subsequently the Uniting Church, and its congregation in the community for over one hundred and fifty years. It is of architectural significance for its use of the Gothic style to express religious values. What is significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is located on the east side of Church Road in Yulecart. The church is a simple, loosely gothic style red pressed brick church which was built in 1929. The Church was built to replace an earlier Methodist church, and has since become the Muddy Creek Uniting Church.

How is it significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is of historical and architectural significance to the Southern Grampians Shire.

Why is it significant?

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is of historical significance as the expression of the role and position of the Methodist Church, and subsequently the Uniting Church, and its congregation in the community for over one hundred and fifty years. It is of architectural significance for its use of the Gothic style to express religious values.

Heritage Study/Consultant	Southern Grampians - Southern Grampians Shire Heritage Study, Timothy Hubbard P/L, Annabel Neylon, 2002;
Construction dates	1929,
Heritage Act Categories	Registered place,
Other Names	MUDDY CREEK UNITING CHURCH,
Hermes Number	23247
Property Number

Physical Conditions

The church is in good condition.

Physical Description 1

The Muddy Creek Pioneer Memorial Church is located on the east side of Church Road, in Yulecart. The building is constructed of pressed red bricks, and is loosely Gothic in style. The church has three bays and a porch extending from the south side. The timber front door is of double leaved ledge and brace construction and painted dark red. The windows are timber painted dark red with coloured glass leadlights. The roof is corrugated iron and pitched at 60 degrees. Architectural details such as arches and buttress shoulders are finished in cemented render painted white.

There is a plaque in the front gable and a foundation stone to the lower left of the facade.

Historical Australian Themes

Theme 8 Developing Australia's cultural life

8.6 Worshipping

8.6.1 Worshipping together

8.6.3 Founding Australian religious institutions

8.6.4 Making places for worship

Integrity

high degree of integrity

Physical Description 2

John Smith, owner of the land and early preacher (and author of the Early Story of Wesleyan Methodism in Victoria?)

Mrs. S Reed, who laid the foundation stone on 9th February 1929.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>