Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Architecturally, an altered but nevertheless boldly expressed Queen Anne villa which contributes to a general precinct; of regional interest and local importance.

Historically, of local interest as built by a former North Melbourne retailer, in common with other businessmen moving from industrialised or older suburbs adjoining.

Physical Description 1

A red brick and rough-cast stucco house of one and an attic level. Gable half-timbering, multi-hipped and gabled Marseilles tile roofs and generally picturesque massing determine this as a Queen Anne Villa. Generally original except for replacement of the fence and attic windows.

Contributes to the historic and aesthetic significance of the Leslie Street precinct.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
