Statement of Significance

Last updated on - October 24, 2006

What is significant? The Top Pub (former Railway Hotel), constructed 1924-25 and altered in 1971, at 23 Main Street, Bunyip.

How is it significant? The Top Pub at 23 Main Street, Bunyip is of contributory historic significance to the Bunyip Town Centre precinct. (Context Pty Ltd 2007)

Why is it significant? Although altered, the former Railway Hotel, built in 1924-25 for Margaret Eldridge, is locally significant as a gathering place, over a long period in Bunyip. The hotel is significant, also, as a major (if altered) element in the locally and regionally significant Bunyip commercial streetscape which emanates mainly from the 1920s and 1930s. (RNE criteria A.4 & E.1) (Graeme Butler & Associates 1996)
