
BUNYIP FIRE STATION

Bunyip Fire Station

Location

13 Pearson Street BUNYIP, Cardinia Shire

Municipality

CARDINIA SHIRE

Level of significance

Included in Heritage Overlay

Heritage Overlay Numbers

HO99

Heritage Listing

Cardinia Shire

Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Bunyip Fire Station is significant to the Cardinia Shire as a 1958 utility building designed in the Modernist manner, being avant-garde for the period and the building type. The building also helps provide evidence of the development of Bunyip as a service centre and railway town in the Shire.

Regional Significance

Heritage Study/Consultant	Cardinia - Cardinia Shire Heritage Study 1996, Graeme Butler & Associates, 1996;
Construction dates	1958,
Other Names	13 Pearson Street, Bunyip,
Hermes Number	29971
Property Number

Physical Description 1

This fire station is Modern in style but, with its butterfly roof it goes beyond the purely utilitarian designs often applied to this type of building. The main doors are glazed, the walls are metal clad and exposed open web trusses and tapered rafters support the roof.

Physical Conditions

The building is generally externally original.

Historical Australian Themes

Themes

- 8.4 Railway townships
- 9.5 Fire Brigade centres

Physical Description 2

Associations - Country Fire Brigade Board

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>