Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

J & ME Lowndes bakery & residence, constructed c 1925, is of significance to Cardinia Shire as an example of an early shop in one of the shire's township service centres. It is a significant component in the Garfield's commercial precinct, and is associated with the area's 1920s boom period. The building is significant, also, as a rare example of an early unaltered bakery and residence, and an important commercial building in a small country town.

Physical Description 1

This brick parapeted shop has a timber post verandah, attached to the corner of a gabled Bungalow style red brick residence; both are sited on the south-east corner of Ritchie Street.

The parapet has a faded sign, 'JE & ME Lowndes P/L Baker' and the shopfronts appear original. The house is set close to the street, has a bayed window and a small porch-verandah with a corrugated iron skillion roof, brick piers and paired timber posts. The gable end is clad with fibrous cement sheet, with the cover straps at the joints providing a modest half-timbered look. There is no front fence to the house but a simple square-top picket is used beside the shop.

Physical Conditions

The shop and residence are externally near original except for the probable removal of the house front fence.
