Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Kaduna Park (plus the associated trees) is significant to the Cardinia Shire as incorporating a well-preserved Edwardian-era farm house with related landscaping. Because of its evident age, the house is evocative of early, more intense farming endeavours in the area.

Physical Description 1

Kaduna Park includes a weatherboarded house (c1912) with a verandah, a planted drive, Monterey cypress, oaks, Monterey pine rows, a Phoenix sp. (palm) and a mature oak. The house has a high pyramid-hipped corrugated-iron roof with corbelled brick chimneys and an encircling verandah supported on timber posts with fretted timber brackets. The verandah roof is set in the plane of the main roof in the typical Federation Bungalow style.

Physical Conditions

The house is in externally near original condition.
