Statement of Significance

Last updated on - May 4, 1999

Guildford Primary School, built in 1868 of brick on a stone base, was modelled by Castlemaine architect J F Kibble on the Board of Education plan no. V111. Additions were made to the building in 1870 and 1873 and major alterations carried out between 1877 and 1912.

Guildford Primary School is a representative and essentially intact example of a goldfields district school of the 1860s. It is particularly noteworthy for the intact Gothic fenestration of the original wing and its calico-lined ceiling.

Permit Exemptions

General Exemptions:

General exemptions apply to all places and objects included in the Victorian Heritage Register (VHR). General exemptions have been designed to allow everyday activities, maintenance and changes to your property, which don't harm its cultural heritage significance, to proceed without the need to obtain approvals under the Heritage Act 2017.

Places of worship: In some circumstances, you can alter a place of worship to accommodate religious practices without a permit, but you must notify the Executive Director of Heritage Victoria before you start the works or activities at least 20 business days before the works or activities are to commence.

Subdivision/consolidation: Permit exemptions exist for some subdivisions and consolidations. If the subdivision or consolidation is in accordance with a planning permit granted under Part 4 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 and the application for the planning permit was referred to the Executive Director of Heritage Victoria as a determining referral authority, a permit is not required.

Specific exemptions may also apply to your registered place or object. If applicable, these are listed below. Specific exemptions are tailored to the conservation and management needs of an individual registered place or object and set out works and activities that are exempt from the requirements of a permit. Specific exemptions prevail if they conflict with general exemptions.
