Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Large interwar attic bungalow with rendered walls on a brick plinth and a tiled jerkinhead gable roof, elevated above the street. The symmetrical facade features double height hipped bays with large curved bay windows with dramatic timber shingled hoods on either side of a semi-circular porch/balcony with render and wrought iron balustrade supported by Tuscan order columns and accessed by a sweeping Terrazzo staircase. Highly intact and complemented by an original front fence with similar detailing to the house.

A Significant place within the HO33 Brunswick Road West precinct.
