Physical Description 1

9 Grandview Street is a single storey Edwardian house with roughcast rendered walls, tapered roughcast chimneys and a hipped and gabled slated roof with terracotta ridge capping and finials. The wide verandah is under the main roof hip and has simple curved timber decoration. Leadlighted doors with highlights open onto the verandah. A terracotta tiled hipped roof addition exists to the south-east, constructed at an unknown date.

Key Architectural Elements: unpainted roughcast render walls; hipped and gabled slate roof; unusual verandah composition.

Principal Historic Themes: early 20th century suburban development over 19th century subdivisions
