Statement of Significance

Last updated on - July 3, 2006

Built between 1910-1914 by local designer/builder Edgar Hawes, this Federation style timber homestead known as Homeview contains a rare and well-preserved collection of Wunderlich ceiling and cornices demonstrating a wide range of the variety and intricacy of patterns then available. In many cases, these patterns are decoratively painted and trimmed with gold leaf, which is probably original.
