History

Heritage Inventory History of Site: Originally the site was part of the Carlrushe pastoral lease, and then the St. Agnes run after 1839. After being subdivided this site was bought by Patrick Donovan in 1855. Borough of Malmsbury rate books show that Patrick Donovan operated the "Farmer's Arms Hotel" here from 1863 (or earlier) until at least 1866. The land was sold to James Gleeson who appears in the rate books as "farmer" and it appears that the hotel was no longer operating at this date. A toll bar existed on the highway outside the hotel.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
